

OMAA Online Symposium 2021

General Info	9:30am-5pm Tuesday 28 September 2021 This year's online symposium theme is Adapting to Change and is designed for O&amp;M specialists, educators and stakeholders who support children and young adults who are blind or vision impaired. Presentation topics include O&amp;M practices for adults and children, motor development and programming, and physical and recreation as it relates to O&amp;M.
Audience Profile	Orientation and Mobility Specialists, Educators, Orthoptists, Parents
Benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Access to professionals working in the O&amp;M field</li><li>Opportunity to build brand awareness</li><li>Showcase new products and services</li></ul>
Cost	Level 1 - $50 (5 minute recording and digital handouts provided to participants) Level 2: AUD$75 (Logo on all mailouts and welcome slides, 5 minute recording and digital handouts provided to participants) Level 3: AUD$200 (sponsorship of keynote presenter, logo and mention during keynote presentation, logo on all mailouts and welcome slides, 5 minute recording and digital handouts provided to participants)

Space is limited. Reserve now.